Rudyard Kipling, the famous English writer was born in India. Some of his famous works are based on his experiences in India. His most famous work is a collection of stories called The Jungle Book (Published in 1894). The stories are fables, using animals in an anthropomorphic manner to give moral lessons. The principal character is a boy or “man-cub” Mowgli, who is raised in the jungle by wolves. Many characters are named simply after the Hindi names of their species : for example, ‘Baloo’ is Hindi for bear, ‘Bandar-log’ for a species of monkeys. ‘Darzee’ is a tailor bird. ‘Hathi’ is an Indian elephant. The stories are said to be based on the animal life of Pench Forest located at Seoni district.

Questions :

- (i) Who is Rudyard Kipling ?
- (ii) Where was Kipling born ?
- (iii) What are fables ?
- (iv) Who is Mowgli ?
