There is a story of a man who thought he had a right to do what he liked. One day, this gentleman was walking along a busy road, spinning his walking-stick round and round in his hand, and was trying to look important. A man walking behind him objected.

"You ought not to spin your walking-stick round and round like that!" he said.

"I am free to do what I like with my walking-stick," argued the gentleman.

'Of course you are," said the other man, "but you ought to know that your freedom ends where my nose begins."

The story tells us that we can enjoy our rights and our freedom only if they do not interfere with other people's rights and freedom.

Questions :

1. Why was the gentleman on the road moving his walking stick round and round ?

(iii) Spinning his walking-stick round and round.

(C) The man who protested was a

(i) Teacher

(ii) Passer-by

(iii) Policeman.

- (B) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions set below :

You know slavery better than freedom, for slavery dwells within you. Working for the profits of your oppressors, you get only that which is barely sufficient to keep you alive. You and your instruments of work are meant to help and strengthen your master's position. Your children and wives die of cold and starvation while your master's dogs are fat and comfortable. When you express the slightest dissatisfaction with your lot, you and your wives are put to death. Therefore it is not proper to tolerate any kind of oppression in the modern age, the age of liberty and freedom. You are sinful if you do that. You must fight for equal rights, equal opportunities and equal wages for equal work. Educate your children and let them learn to live with dignity.

Questions :

1. When you work for others, what do you get ?
2. What for are you and your instruments meant ?
3. What happens to your wife and children when you work for your oppressor ?
4. Why are the wives and the children put to death?
5. What must you fight for ?
6. Write synonyms of the following words from passage :
 - (i) Slavery
 - (ii) Sufficient
 - (iii) Starvation
 - (iv) Modern
